

Counting Abacus (Wooden) 55 Beads

MODEL - AKML-020

MAKE - AK LABS

The AK LABS Wooden Counting Abacus is a durable mathematical learning aid designed to help children understand counting, number recognition, addition, subtraction, and place value concepts. Its colorful sliding beads make mathematics interactive, engaging, and suitable for classrooms and early learning environments.

PRODUCT SPECIFICATION

Product Type	Wooden Counting Abacus
Bead Count	55 Colorful Beads
Material	High-Quality Natural Wood
Frame	Strong, smooth-finished wooden frame
Learning Purpose	Counting, number recognition, addition & subtraction
Age Group	Preschool and Primary School Students
Suitable For	Schools, Activity Centers, Montessori Classrooms & Home Learning

PRODUCT DETAILS

The AK LABS Wooden Counting Abacus is manufactured from premium-quality wood with smooth-finished colorful beads for safe and long-lasting educational use. It helps students develop counting skills, arithmetic operations, number sequencing, and mental calculation through hands-on learning. Ideal for preschools, primary schools, mathematics laboratories, activity rooms, and home learning environments.

Key Features

- Premium wooden frame with durable construction
- Bright colorful beads for better visual learning
- Smooth sliding beads for easy counting
- Develops basic mathematics and mental calculation skills
- Ideal for classroom demonstrations and individual practice
- Safe, reusable, and maintenance-free educational aid
- Suitable for early childhood and primary education

Applications

- Counting and number recognition
- Addition and subtraction activities
- Place value learning
- Mental mathematics practice
- Preschool mathematics education
- Primary school classrooms
- Mathematics laboratory activities